Six Steps to Cool Down

“Kids will be kids.”

“Boys will be boys.”

“They’ll grow out of that stage; just be patient.”

Sound familiar? Parenting a child at any age can be a challenging, sometimes frustrating experience. At the same time it can be the most rewarding experience as the fun and precious years fly by all too quickly. Each stage of childhood has its own challenges for moms and dads. First, its “babies don’t stay colicky forever,” which turns into “the terrible twos,” all leading up to the adolescent stage with all its eye rolling, arguing, avoiding chores and refusing to do homework. When your child is in one of these tough stages, the days can seem to last forever, but before you know it, they are walking across that graduation stage and you wonder where the years went!

Even the best of parents will have a bad day – days where the challenges of work, bills, chauffeuring the kids, laundry and supervising homework can get the best of us. At times like that, we can feel our bodies becoming tense, and sometimes we lose our patience and raise our voices. When you find yourself having one of these moments, know that, just like kids sometimes need a “time out,” adults sometimes need to take a few moments to calm down, too.

When you feel the pressures of the day coming down on you and transferring to your child in the form of yelling, criticizing or punishing, try these strategies for giving yourself a grown-up “time out”:

1. Take a deep breath. And another. Remember that you are the adult.
2. Close your eyes and imagine you are hearing what you’re planning to say to your child.
3. Press your lips together and count to 10. Keep going until 20, or as high as you need until you feel calmer.
4. Phone a friend.
5. Turn on some music; maybe even sing or dance along with it. You can even have a short dance party with your child to give both of you a break from a stressful situation.
6. Remove yourself from the situation for a few minutes to go drink a glass of cold water.

(Ages 12 and up)
8/24 @ 12-3 pm, Class # AAMR98A

Calligraphy is the age-old art of beautiful writing. This basic class will focus on the comprehensive study of the lettering style we most closely associate with the 1920s, Frank Lloyd Wright and soft elegant curves and lines. Art Nouveau lettering is structured, easy to learn and elegant. It can be decorated and modernized very nicely too. Calligraphy classes offer you a chance to relax, have fun, and learn a time honored skill; they also increase your hand-eye co-ordination, patience, and aesthetic awareness. This concentration will slow you down and let creativity in. Bring your own calligraphy pen or one will be available for purchase for $12.
